Limerick Choral Festival

Limerick Choral Festival: Friday 26th February - Sunday 28th February 2016.

Adjudicators: Dr. Ita O'Donovan & Dr. Paul McKeever

The Limerick Choral Festival aims to promote the development of choral music with special emphasis on the realm of church/sacred music in the city, wider region and throughout the country. We look forward to welcoming choirs from near and far to Limerick over the last weekend in February 2016. A special part of this year's festival is a concert with the Palestrina Choir, Dublin. All welcome and tickets may sell out, so please do book in advance. Tickets now available from Abbey bookshop at the Augustinian church, Limerick, and tickets will be available at the door.

Mass of St. Ita

As part of City of Culture 2014, Bishop Brendan commissioned Fr. Columba McCann to write a new Mass setting for Limerick. This Mass setting was first heard at the televised Easter ceremonies from St John's Cathedral that year. It is now being published and all parishes, schools and chaplaincies are invited to learn the Mass of St Ita, so that we can sing it together during our Diocesan Synod in April and then at future diocesan pilgrimages and events.

On Thursday, January 28th, we will launch the Mass of St Ita in St John's Cathedral at 7:30pm. All welcome.

A workshop with Columba McCann and Bernadette Kiely will follow from 8-9pm. Places must be booked in advance for the 8pm workshop to ensure copies of the sheet music are available for all. Please contact us at 061400133, reception@ldpc.ie or write to LDPC, Denmark St, Limerick to reserve your free place. For questions please email NLynch@ldpc.ie

Crib Project

For the last number of weeks during the Christmas session we were supporting Crib Project by donating all offerings from the crib to Sr. Miriam Duggan who works with poor children in Nairobi. We would like to let you know that the total amount collected is €12,285. We wish to thank everyone who contributed to this worthy cause.
