The Passion

Polish Theatre in Limerick Cantate Deo Choir with special guests presents Passion in Limerick. A story about sacrifice, pain, suffering and death, but also about infinite mercy and hope. Passion spectacle illustrating the suffering and resurrection of the Jesus Christ in the convention light - sound - moving images created by the actors and the Passion music performed live by the Cantate Deo Choir. The spectacle will take place in St. Mary's Cathedral on the 8th April at 8.00pm. Doors open from 7.30pm. Free Admission.

Church Gate Collection

St. Vincent De Paul is holding their monthly church gate collection at all Masses this weekend.

The Stations of the Cross : Then and Now by Denis McBride C.Ss.R.

I have called the book The Stations of the Cross: then and now in an attempt to recognise that the way of the cross winds through every village and town and city in our world. The way of sorrows was not only an ancient road located in Jerusalem two thousand years ago; it is a crowded highway, populated by millions of people who endure violence and suffering today. These fourteen Stations of the Cross serve not only to celebrate the memory of Jesus' passion but as a way of becoming more alert to the passion of so many around us who struggle under the burden of their own cross.

Available in the Monastery shop at €14.
