St Brigid - Mary of the Gaels

Saint Brigid of Kildare, is a saint of many names: Brigid of Ireland, Brigit, Bridget, Bridgit, Brid, Bridge, Naomh Bhride or Mary of the Gaels. Living from 451 to 525 it is said, she was an Irish nun, abbess, founder of several convents, held the rank of bishop and generally venerated as a saint. Considered as one of Ireland's patron saints, she ranks only behind Saint Patrick himself in importance. We will celebrate her feast day, Saint Brigid's Day, on Monday, February 1st, this is also the first day of spring in Ireland.

Feast of the Presentation of the Lord

This Tuesday, February 2nd we will celebrate the Feast of the Presentation of the Lord also called Candlemas Day. Masses as usual at 8am, 10.00am and 7.15pm. The blessing of candles will take place before all the Masses today.

Candles to be blessed can be left into the Monastery office in advance, please ensure they are labelled.

Feast of St. Blaise—blessing of throats

Since the eighth century, Saint Blaise has been venerated as the patron of those who suffer from diseases of the throat. We pray in a special way today for protection from afflictions of the throat and from other illnesses. The blessing of Saint Blaise is a sign of our faith in God's protection and love for us and for the sick. Wednesday February 3rd is the Feast of St. Blaise and the blessing of throats will take place after all the Masses today.
