Spring Clean for St Vincent de Paul.

Norma Smurfit's Spring Clean for Charity in aid of St Vincent de Paul Society, Midwest will be held on Sunday February 12th at the South Court Hotel Limerick.

There are a number of ways for you to become involved:

Donate unwanted items, take a stall for the day to help us sell, volunteer to help set up stalls on Saturday, volunteer to help with clean up on the Sunday, donate a spot prize, loan equipment such as mobile rails and hangers, support us by attending on the day.

For further information please e-mail eileen@svpmw.com or call 061 317327 and mention Spring Clean for Charity

‘The Spirituality of St. Patrick’ by John J. O’Riordáin

Springtime always weeks to emit a ray of hope! With that in mind we launch ‘The Spirituality of St. Patrick’, a booklet described by its redemptorist author as a fountain of nourishment based on the writings of our national apostle. The booklet is not just a “good read” says John J., “it is a Rule of Life, a rule that sustained Patrick through rain and shine, giving meaning where meaning was hard to find”. Dr. Ken Newell, former moderator of the Presbyterian Church refers to this booklet as “a major Contribution to the new season of reconciliation that is defrosting the divisions that have scarred our Island and pushed believers apart”.

The booklet only costs €2 and is available from the monastery shop, or by writing to The Secretary, Mount St. Alphonsus, South Circular Road, Limerick, or email the author at johnjoriordain@yahoo.ie
