Sunday 28th May 2023

The Ascension of the Lord.

We see the light break through the cloud of glory
What we were created still in time and glory
In earth because a part of Heaven's story
And heaven opened to the human race

Steps to the strength that rises out of weakness,
Steps through the clouds that lead from earth to light,
What we see above because the clouds of weakness
And sing the rising of heaven into

We see him go and yet we were not parted
He took us with him to the heart of things
The heart that looks for all the broken hearted
In earth and Heaven united now,

The light is us, and now is his resurrected,
Which all creation waits to see
resurrected.

Celebrating in unity

Please continue to observe recommendations regarding local authorities on entering and leaving the church, wearing face masks and respecting coughing and sneezing etiquette. The bread and other larger gatherings Holy Communion will be distributed in various. Please follow the directions of the servers. For the time being, offerings will continue to be collected on leaving the church.

A Vision for our Faith Community

"Our community is Church as Phospha, a family of faith created in Christ, a place of sanctuary where the faith is alive and all are welcomed to this open community hall of heart (unity). We care for each other and renew the Church with missionary energy."

We thank all who come to our next meeting for Pastoral Renewal with the Church.
Our next meeting will take place on Wednesday 31st of May. All are welcome.

Goodreads by John Kibben

Our thanks and congratulations to John who's book signing last week raised €700.00 for our benevolent fund. This is in addition to previous sales (copies are still available in the Monastery shop).
